TOBACCO AND CIGARS.
Brands May Come
and brands may go but the famous old
"Plantation"
goes on forever. Years ago, when we first put this brand upon the market, we determined there should be one firm which would make an honest effort to keep its product up to a certain standard, and the popularity of our "Plantation" brand is evidence that we have succeeded. The stock is of the same quality, and the blend exact. The same care is exercised in the manufacture of our entire output. Every Plantation cigar is stamped with the firm name of

SUPERB BALL AT WHITNEY'S.
Mr. William C. Whitney gave a ball Tuesday night for his step-daughter, Miss Adelaide Douglas Randolph, at his home, 871 Fifth Avenue, New York. It was the first private ball of the winter and the leaders of New York society were out in full force. Fully 700 invitations had been sent out and few regrets were received.
Mr. Whitney and his step-daughter, who is a debutante of this winter, received the guests in the banquet hall near the entrance to the ballroom. Miss Randolph wore a costume of white tulle simply made and garnished with lilies of the valley. She held a bouquet of these flowers.
The Whitney mansion is too beautiful and ornate to require further description than the superb lanterns, brocades and works of art that adorn its walls, therefore the first embellishments were not but incidental, and they were in exquisite taste.
The guests entered through the lower hall, the regular stairway to the grand ball being covered over to make place for one of the orchestras. This lower hall is hung with tapestries that almost cover the walls. The main scheme of the floral decorations in this part of the house was carried out with brilliant red pommetta blossoms that gave an air of cheer and welcome in contrast to the snow outside. In the upper and grand ball room, known as "La Gloire de Lorraine," were massed about the floor, and mantles and around the platform where was stationed Karl Kopsey Hungarian Band. In the library and the drawing room adjoining were orchids and pink roses in vases.
The ballroom floral decorations were severely elegant, consisting of large standards of American Beauty roses placed in the corners. The hanging globe covering the electric lamps were twined with graceful Japanese asparagus vines and clusters of pink orchids. There has been an addition to the artistic treasures of this room since Mr. Whitney opened his house last winter. This is a panel of Gobelins tapestry after Boucher, a sylvan subject, which has been placed at the east end of the ball room, in the balcony of gilded bronze, one of the works of art of the Whitney mansion. Lander's full orchestra was stationed there, playing for general dancing for the portion that followed supper.

It was 1:30 o'clock when the cotillon began. Mr. J. D. Roman Baldwin led from one end and Miss Randolph and Mr. Craig Wadsworth from the other end with Mrs. Henry Payne Whitney. It was a large cotillon, about 300 dancing.
The favors were handsome and effective. In the first figure there were delicate made in delicate shades of satin, trimmed with gauze and spring flowers, and cigarette cutters of bronze representing animals. In the second the women received large floral wands and the men silver hunting horns, trimmed with ribbons and flowers. In the third figure there were miniature automobiles for the women and automobile caps for their partners. For the fourth, large satin puff bags, trimmed with pink roses, were given to the women, while the men received satin sashes, and in the fifth there were strings of Venetian beads for the women and London walking sticks for the men.
The favors of the third figure were brought into the ballroom in an automobile in charge of a chauffeur in costume, including goggles, cap and heavy coat.
At the conclusion of the cotillon there was another supper for those who desired it.

A FIGHT WITH A BIG EAGLE.
Christian Lehnis, of Egg Harbor City, N. J., had to fight for his life on Monday with a big gray eagle. He was driving along the road near his home, with a wagonload of fish, when the American bird swooped down on the vehicle and began to devour the fish. Lehnis tried to drive the eagle off, but it boldly attacked him with beak and talons, and the man was nearly worried. Finally he killed the eagle with an axe he had, but his clothing was badly torn and he received a number of painful wounds in the battle with the bird. The eagle measured seven feet from tip to tip of wings and is three feet high. It has a beak four inches long and talons five inches. It is a splendid specimen and one of the largest eagles ever seen in south Jersey. It was sent to Atlantic City, to be mounted.

Pneumonia Prevented.
Among the tens of thousands who have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for colds and the grippe during the past few years, to our knowledge, not a single case has resulted in pneumonia. Thos. Whitfield & Co., 240 Wabash Avenue, Chicago, one of the most prominent retail druggists in that city, in speaking of this, says: "We recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the grippe in many cases, as it not only gives prompt and complete recovery, but also counteracts any tendency of the grippe to result in pneumonia." For sale by Richard Gibson, druggist.

Saved His Life.
"I wish to say that I feel I owe my life to Kodol Dyspepsia Cure," writes H. C. Obertson of Hayfield, Mass. "For three years I was troubled with dyspepsia so that I could hold nothing on my stomach. Many times I would be unable to retain a morsel of food. Finally I was confined to my bed. Doctor said I could not live. I read one of your advertisements on Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and thought it fit my case and commenced its use. I began to improve from the first bottle. Now I am cured and recommend it to all." Digests your food. Cures all stomach troubles. For sale by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.
